PRESS RELEASE

Actuarial Association announces resignation of Chief Executive

Brussels, 1 April 2020:

The Actuarial Association of Europe announced today that Cecilia Thorn has resigned as Chief Executive, effective as of 1 April 2020. Cecilia has partnered with Stenström Consulting, a boutique lobbying firm in Brussel, and will be acting as Special Advisor with focus on sustainable finance, financial and professional services.

Cecilia Thorn said “I want to thank the Actuarial Association of Europe for this time together. It has been a pleasure to work with its leadership and members across Europe”

Falco Valkenburg, Chairperson of the AAE said “I would like to thank Cecilia for her contributions to the AAE to fulfil our strategic objectives and furthering the AAE’s reach and influence with European institutions and stakeholders. On behalf of the board we wish her all the best for the future”

- 3. The Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) was established in 1978 under the name Groupe Consultatif to represent actuarial associations in Europe. Its primary purpose is to provide advice and opinions to the various organisations of the European Union - the Commission, the Council of Ministers, the European Parliament, the European Supervisors and their committees – on actuarial issues in European legislation. The AAE currently has 36 member associations in 35 European countries, representing over 25,000 actuaries. Advice and comments provided by the AAE on behalf of the European actuarial profession are totally independent of industry interests. The Actuarial Association of Europe is registered in the EU Transparency Register under number 550855911144-54*
