

PRESS RELEASE

The Actuarial Association of Europe admits its 5th Observer Member Association

Brussels, 11 October 2023: The Actuarial Association of Europe is pleased to announce that it has admitted the Actuarial Association of Moldova (Asociația de Actuarat din Moldova, AAM), as its 5th Observer Member Association. The AAM was established in January 2007, has a membership comprising 12 fully qualified actuaries and is currently led by President Oleg Verejan.

The AAM objectives include:

- Contribution to recognition, support and promoting the actuary profession in the Republic of Moldova;
- Affirmation and defense of the rights of all actuaries or persons professionally assimilated to those operating in the Republic of Moldova;
- Acquiring and spreading knowledge in the actuarial field.

Admission as an Observer Member requires the approval of the AAE General Assembly. At its last meeting, held on 6 October 2023, the General Assembly unanimously approved the application of AAM to become an AAE Observer Member.

This activity contributes towards achieving the AAE's strategic objective to promote a European community of actuaries.

3. The Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) was established in 1978 under the name Groupe Consultatif to represent actuarial associations in Europe. Its primary purpose is to provide advice and opinions to the various organisations of the European Union - the Commission, the Council of Ministers, the European Parliament, the European Supervisors and their committees – on actuarial issues in European legislation. The AAE currently has 38 member associations in 37 European countries, representing over 29,000 actuaries. Advice and comments provided by the AAE on behalf of the European actuarial profession are totally independent of industry interests. The Actuarial Association of Europe is registered in the EU Transparency Register under number 550855911144-54
