In the 2021 Rome Congress, a project called the "Global Actuary" was launched with 1,210 participants, including actuaries and stakeholders. The aim was to expand the traditional roles of actuaries in fields like insurance and pensions, while also exploring new areas such as enterprise risk management, artificial intelligence, and finance. The upcoming Congress, titled "The Global Actuary for a Sustainable World: Tradition, Innovation, and Emerging Risks," will delve into these topics, with a focus on Italian, European, and international perspectives. Stakeholders are warmly invited to participate, and more information can be found on www.ordineattuari.it and www.actuary-isoa.com.

- 11 April 2024, Conference in Celebration of David Wilkie's 90th Birthday, in-person only, Professor David Wilkie was at one time an active member of the Groupe Consultatif, the predecessor of the AAE. David reaches his 90th birthday next year, and a Conference to commemorate this is being held at York University, England, on 11 April 2024. Please see the webpage for more details.
