Press Release

Resignation Giampaolo Crenca

Brussels, 14 May 2024

The AAE has been informed by its Chairperson, Giampaolo Crenca, on 10 May 2024 that due to personal reasons he resigns from the AAE Board and therefore from his position as Chairperson of the AAE with immediate effect.

The members of the AAE Board take note of Giampaolo Crenca's resignation and thank him for his strong commitment to the profession. In particular, the AAE will continue its 3-year plan to further advance the actuarial profession. This plan is currently under development and its implementation will continue to be one of AAE's main objectives. The members of the AAE Board wish Giampaolo Crenca all the best for the future.

Inga Helmane has been a member of the AAE Board since 2020 and has been the Vice Chairperson until Giampaolo Crenca's resignation. She is the Acting Chairperson of the AAE until the General Assembly of the AAE in October 2024.

The European Congress of Actuaries 2024 in Rome will take place as originally planned on 6-7 June 2024.

3. The Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) was established in 1978 under the name Groupe Consultatif to represent actuarial associations in Europe. Its primary purpose is to provide advice and opinions to the various organisations of the European Union - the Commission, the Council of Ministers, the European Parliament, the European Supervisors and their committees – on actuarial issues in European legislation. The AAE currently has 38 member associations in 37 European countries, representing circa 30,000 actuaries. Advice and comments provided by the AAE on behalf of the European actuarial profession are totally independent of industry interests. The Actuarial Association of Europe is registered in the EU Transparency Register under number 550855911144-54.
