Press Release

Actuarial Association of Europe elections

Brussels, 14 October 2024

The Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) has announced the results of its latest elections.

Following the 50th General Assembly held on 11 October 2024, Jette Lunding Sandqvist of Denmark was re-elected to continue serving as a member of the AAE Board until October 2027. Jette originally joined the AAE Board of Directors in January 2023 and is now eligible to serve an additional three-year term.

Birgit Kaiser of Germany has been elected as the new Chairperson of the AAE Professionalism Committee, succeeding Christophe Heck from Switzerland. Birgit, who has held the role of vice-chairperson for the past six years, will serve her first term as Chairperson until October 2027, with the option to continue for a second and final three-year term.

Rafael Moreno Ruiz of Spain has been elected as Chairperson of the AAE Education Committee, taking over from Henning Wergen of Germany. Like Birgit, Rafael has also served as vice-chairperson for six years. His first term as Chairperson will extend until October 2027, with the possibility of continuing for a second three-year term.

Finally, Eugenija Bieliauskienė of Lithuania and Wilhelm Schneemeier of Germany were elected as members of the AAE Nominations Panel. They will succeed Jana Zelinkova from the Czech Republic and Maitane Mancebo from Spain.

The AAE wishes to thank those leaving for their unlimited commitment over the last years and wishes all elected success in their new or extended role.

3. The Actuarial Association of Europe (AAE) was established in 1978 under the name Groupe Consultatif to represent actuarial associations in Europe. Its primary purpose is to provide advice and opinions to the various organisations of the European Union - the Commission, the Council of Ministers, the European Parliament, the European Supervisors and their committees – on actuarial issues in European legislation. The AAE currently has 38 member associations in 37 European countries, representing circa 30,000 actuaries. Advice and comments provided by the AAE on behalf of the European actuarial profession are totally independent of industry interests.
The Actuarial Association of Europe is registered in the EU Transparency Register under number 550855911144-54.
